

2010 – Grand Marshal
Commissioner, Thary Ung

Commissioner, Thary Ung, has been a strong community advocate and demonstrates community service excellence. She is a firm believer of social justice, equality, strong commitment to improve the community and last but not least, has a BIG heart for the people. Ms. Thary Ung is very active in the local community, especially, in the city of Long Beach. She's currently serving on the Citizen Police Complaint Commission as a Commissioner, Board of Director with following organizations such as: Cambodian Town Inc., Cambodian Coordinating Council, Wat Khmer Buddhikaram in the city Long Beach, Treasurer with the Killing Fields Memorial Center, President of Khmer Disabled Artists Association, Member of the Los Angeles County Asian Employees Association. In addition, Ms. Thary Ung had served as Goodwill Citizen in the Kingdom of Cambodia since 1991 to help build schools and libraries, seeking education funding, and providing humanitarian relief to the needy families and children throughout Cambodia.

Ms. Thary Ung is an exceptional individual in the community with respect and integrity. The Cambodian Coordinating Council, Grand Marshal Committee, proudly, voted her as this year 2010's Grand Marshal.

